

Fall Style Show Is Attractive Club Feature

As an added attraction of the well-arranged program presented by Torrance Woman's club yesterday with Mrs. O. W. Hudson as program chairman, the J. C. Penney Company featured "Penney's Fashion Parade" with Mr. Frank M. Buffington as interpreter of the models displayed. The stage at the clubhouse, decorated with leaves in fall colors and baskets of dahlias, created an artistic background for the occasion. Mrs. A. W. Johnson, club musician, played the accompaniment for the showing. The models, Misses Margaret Shell, Betty Neelds, Ethel Ward and Mrs. Marie McCrae, were attractively made up by Miss Bea Christensen of the American Beauty Shop. An around the clock schedule of attractive garments, suitable for their respective purposes, was initiated by the entrance of the models wearing colorful house dresses in orchid plaid, green stripes, red and white model check and a beige, respectively.

Street wear included a Burgundy red ensemble having a detachable cape and plaid blouse. A long coated suit of dark red rough tweed with lace knit blouse was worn by Miss Shell; a smart outfit of plain tailored red ensemble trimmed in cream satin was shown by Miss Ward and Mrs. McCrae followed with a blue travel tweed. Leather and chamois jackets for sports and school wear were featured.

Leading colors for fall and winter are to be black, brown and Burgundy red, with an occasional model in green. Felt hats with narrow brims and turban effects are worn with street frocks with excellent effect. Dark shades in hostelry will prevail, with pumps, pumps style shoes with Continental heel for street wear.

Afternoon wear included models in black crepe trimmed in white braid, with matching hat and accessories; a brown Tampa crepe with pleated inset, and a Burgundy red model. Wide shoulder effects achieved by puffed or cape sleeves, accentuate slenderness.

A Sunday evening frock, essential to a well stocked wardrobe, was shown in a black crepe with velvet trim. A black lace with detachable jacket, was a very interesting model.

In the evening group were shown an attractive ruffled taffeta, in a yellow, suitable for the younger miss, a beautiful pale green crepe with pleating lines, Goya red crepe, and a lace and crepe model, all very handsome.

Many lovely coats were shown, among them a striking model in black trimmed in Manchurian dog fur flecked with white.

The style show, with the same models, will be repeated at tonight's performance at the Torrance theatre, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

MRS. WATSON ENTERTAINS CLUB

WOMAN'S AID AT BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

The Woman's Aid Society of the M. E. church will celebrate their 11th birthday anniversary with a luncheon to be held at the church auditorium on Tuesday, October 11, at 12:30 o'clock. A special program is being arranged which promises to be very interesting. A large group is expected. Tickets at 25 cents may be secured. Reservations may be made with the president, Mrs. J. B. Edwards, or circle chairmen, Mrs. Reid McCray, Mrs. D. C. Turner, or Mrs. Robinett. Following luncheon a general meeting of the society will be called to order at 2:00 p. m.

O. E. S. GROUP AT LOS ANGELES

More than 40 members of the Eastern Star and their friends attended a bridge party given under the auspices of Sparklets Bottled Water Corporation at their plant, 4500 York boulevard, Los Angeles, Thursday afternoon. Following a tour of the plant the ladies enjoyed an afternoon of bridge and refreshments of ice cream and cake served buffet style concluded the afternoon. Those from Torrance who received prizes for bridge were Mrs. George Watson and Mrs. H. W. Roberts.

MRS MOORE IS HONORED WITH PARTY

Members of the Friendship Club met as usual at the home of Mrs. W. W. Woodington on Arlington avenue Tuesday evening but instead of sewing they enjoyed a surprise party honoring Mrs. J. O. Moore, the occasion being her birthday. Cards and gifts were presented to the honoree and at a long table, centered with a pink cosmos, a decorated birthday cake with light and candles was placed. Included were the honoree, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. W. H. Stanger, Mrs. W. W. Woodington, Mrs. W. W. West, Mrs. Mae Sidebotham, Mrs. Fred Lessing, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Ben Olsen, Mrs. Fred Knudson, Mrs. J. P. Dalton, Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Mrs. Mueller, Mrs. L. C. Miller and son, Richard, Mrs. Kenney, Mrs. E. A. Thompson and Mrs. L. L. Fordice.

FETED ON BIRTHDAY

The birthday anniversary of Douglas Collins provided the incentive for a delightfully novel "depression" party when a group of his friends arrived at the Collins home on Torrance boulevard Monday evening garbed in decidedly "tacky" raiment. The depression idea was carried out in accessories in a clever manner. Bridge furnished the evening's entertainment, and a prize was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff. Included were Miss Daisy Kohler, Dewey Fix, Mr. and Mrs. Harvel Guttenfelder, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Wright and Mrs. Caroline Collins. Refreshments were served at small tables at the close of the evening.

BRIDGE CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Harry Shaffer entertained her bridge club with a smartly appointed luncheon at her home on Martina avenue last week. Fall flowers were used throughout the rooms and a fall color arrangement was used in accessories and decorations. Mrs. Baker Smith received a prize for high score at bridge, and a guest prize was presented to Mrs. George Morgan. Included were Mrs. J. Wilkes, Mrs. H. F. Robinson, Mrs. Baker Smith, Mrs. George Morgan, Mrs. Carl Marsteller, Mrs. Alden W. Smith and Mrs. J. C. Snow.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB MEETS

Mrs. J. O. Moore was hostess to her bridge club when she entertained at her home on Gramercy avenue Tuesday afternoon. Madame Cochet roses and fern in attractive arrangement were used throughout the rooms. At bridge awards were presented to Mrs. J. H. Pess and Mrs. W. West, while Mrs. Baker Smith received a consolation. Included were Mesdames John Dennis, W. W. West, Archer Lewis, J. H. Pess, Mae Sidebotham, Fred Knudson, J. F. Dalton, R. L. McFarland, L. L. Fordice, V. L. Maxfield and Baker Smith.

SAMMY IS SIX

On the occasion of his sixth birthday anniversary, Sammy Intermill entertained a group of his small friends Saturday afternoon. Games were enjoyed and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Included were Junior Clair, Sonny Degner, June Summers, Lyle Inzold and the host, Sammy Intermill.

BENEFIT DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT

Tickets for the dance to be given at the Mandarin ballroom, Redondo Beach, Saturday night, October 8, for the benefit of the Veterans' Relief Association are going rapidly, according to those who have the affair in charge. Various rumors as to the date of this dance have been in circulation, causing some doubt as to the time and place set; but this dance should not be confused with the one to be given later by the police and firemen of Torrance which will take place November 18. The dance will be held Saturday night as first announced. A big crowd is expected.

CONTRACT BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. F. T. Fischer was hostess when she entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Madrid avenue Thursday afternoon at a dessert bridge. Dahlias were used throughout the rooms and covers were placed at small tables for the following: Mrs. A. A. Strom, Mrs. C. D. Lowen, Mrs. Elmer Patterson, Mrs. N. F. Galucci, Mrs. R. J. Deininger, Mrs. W. E. Miller, Mrs. Louis Cheadle, Mrs. Louis Fernley, Mrs. H. T. Lintott, Mrs. Grace Olsen, Mrs. Betty Gartner of Beverly Hills.

O. E. S. MEETING NEXT WEEK

The stated meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star will be held at Masonic Temple, Thursday, October 13. A pot luck supper will be served at 6:00 o'clock. All members and visiting stars are cordially invited to attend.
